Shoemaker, Joseph S.	3	1917-1930	1930: J.C. forwarded an anonymous letter to J.S., written by a woman from Landisville whose husband had committed adultery. She forgave him and he felt forgiven and had taken communion. Then J.C. preached in her congregation giving an example of someone who had made a public confession. After that her husband was upset. She is asking J.C. to write a reply in the Gospel Herald. J.S.'s response includes the original letter.
